He is young, dynamic and passionate, we are happy that he is with us again.”

“Coming back to Ega feels like returning home after a long journey that lasted over 7 years. A lot has changed in the meantime, and new challenges await us in a world full of opportunities. I am eager to make a difference here by putting to work all the experience gained in other cities and in other sectors, and I thank the owner for the trust and esteem they showed me.”, says Riccardo Pizzuti.
